TOPIC: OUR SENSE ORGANS

ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS

1. Identify the organ of the sense of touch. __________________________

2. List two functions of the sense organ stated in question one.
   (i) ____________________________________________________________
   (ii) ___________________________________________________________

3. Explain why the hairs on your skin will relax when your body feels hot? __________________________

4. Name one form of waste which is excreted by the skin. __________________________

5. Other than getting rid of waste give one other function of the largest organ of the body.
   _____________________________________________________________

6. How is the tongue important to the Digestive System?
   _____________________________________________________________

7. State one way in which you can exercise care for your tongue.
8. Thomas bites into a fresh carilla, where on the organ of taste will Thomas most definitely sense its taste?

9. Describe the function of the tiny bumps called papillae on your tongue.

10. Draw a diagram of your ear and label it correctly.

11. Name the three bones which make up the ossicles.

12. Name the organ in the body which controls the five sense organs.

13. Our ears help us to hear and ______________________________.

14. Explain how someone may become deaf.
15. If someone becomes deaf how can he or she communicate with others?

16. Which organ does the brain use to help us smell?

17. Describe what happens when the olfactory bulb becomes activated in the nose.

Study the following diagrams carefully then answer questions 18 to 20.

18. Which diagram shows the organ that produces waste commonly called wax?

19. Name the part of the ear that helps to give us balance.
20. Name two parts of the skin found at the dermis layer.

21. State what is a subcutaneous tissue and give its function.